

HOW TO PLAY

Print the game board. You will need M&Ms, Skittles, mini marshmallows, or any small candy.

To Play: Place a candy on each gingerbread on the game board. One person turns their back or leaves the room. You could also use a blindfold if leaving the room isn't an option. The other players will quietly agree on one secret gingerbread space.

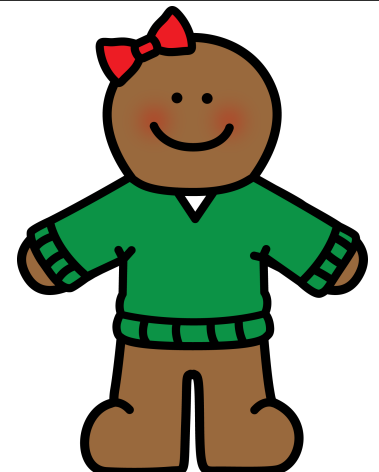

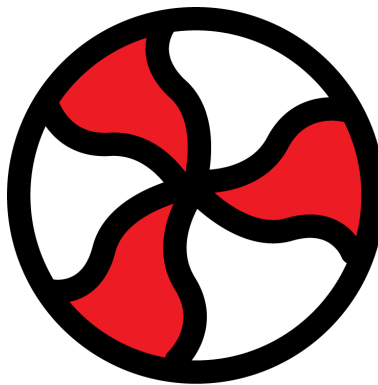

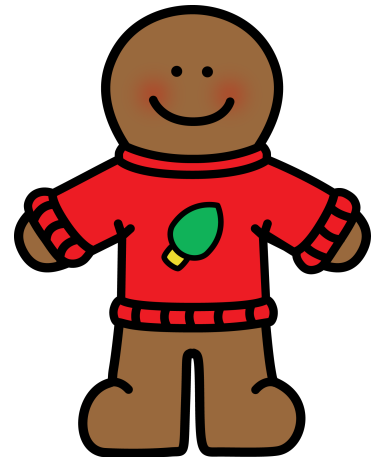

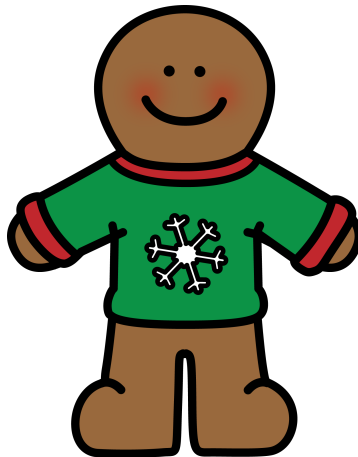

Once the secret spot has been decided, the player comes back into the room or the blindfold is removed. The player picks up the candy and begins eating the pieces one at a time.

When the player picks up the candy on the secret space, everyone says "Don't eat the gingerbread!!!!". The game board is cleared and the game begins again.

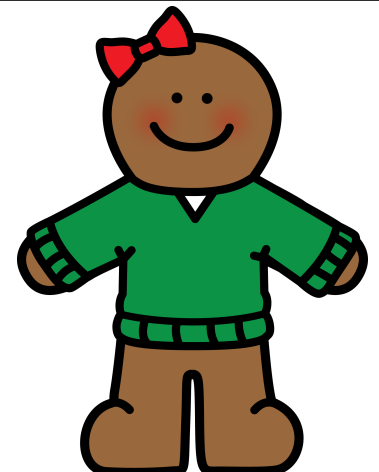

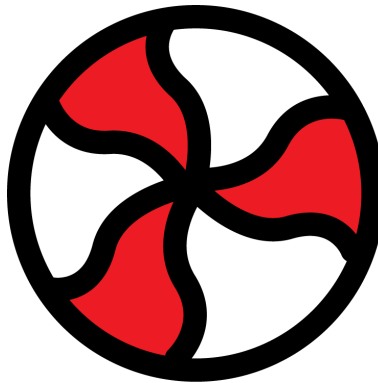

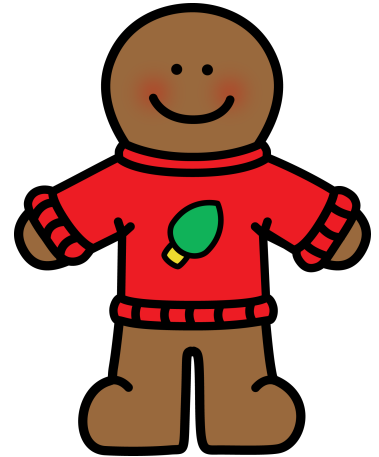

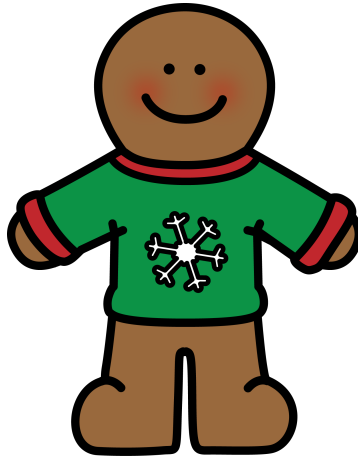

There is also a non-food version included: "Don't Grab the Gingerbread". For this version you can use mini gingerbread erasers or other small classroom/holiday items (such as pom-poms). Use the same rules as stated above, but students remove the object instead of eating it!
