"This resource was perfect for kindergarten during center time and writer's workshop. The prompts helped them, but they were still encouraged to write on their own!"
—Czarina P.

"These are great to help kids think of writing topics. I love that they have words on the side for the kids to use as well as reminders of how their sentences should look." —Sarah W.

"My students loved using these writing prompts. The format helped them to use spaces between their words and to begin a sentence with a capital letter. I liked them so much that I purchased other months to use in class." —Nicole B.
