About this resource:

This no prep activity includes 40 pages of sight word "I Can Read" sentences. This set is the pre-primer sight word list.

Simply print the page(s) you want your students to use. Students will need a pencil and crayons.

These pages work great for introducing sight words, small group practice, morning work, or practice at home.

Students will read the sight word at the top of the page and then read the sentences that include the sight word. After they read the sentences three times each, they color the stars to keep track. Finally, they write the sight word on the dotted lines at the bottom.

You can also print these pages and make a sight word notebook for each student or laminate them to reuse in centers. Students will also love rainbow writing the sight word at the bottom of the page for extra practice.
