TEACHER REVIEWS

"Writing can be a struggle in kindergarten, but not with write and draw! My students enjoy these prompts and are more confident in their writing." -Alyssa G.

"I love the prompts and that it gives students choices to help build their sentence. This is great for modeling to students how to write a sentence. We will work up to using the check boxes at the bottom but that is a great visual for new writers on things to remember in their writing!" -Dawn C.

"The prompts help my students with their writing. They help them with using spaces between their words. I have them ready to go in their October writing journals." -Nicole B.

"I love these! I use them for kids when they are doing rotations. It takes the guess work out of what they should write about and gives supports for kiddos needing visuals." -Aliya R.
